John Clegg

BIOGRAPHY: John Clegg, a venerable citizen of Moundsville, was born in Marshall county, W.Va., June 28, 1815, the son of Thomas and Kesiah (Hubbs) Clegg. The father came from Ireland with his parents when twenty-one years of age, settled on Wheeling creek, and served one year in the war of 1812. He died at the age of seventy-seven years, and his wife, the mother of John Clegg, died when the latter was six years old. Of their twelve children three are now living.

Mr. Clegg was reared as a farmer and followed that vocation until 1853, when he came to Moundsville.

February, 1864, he enlisted in Company C, of the Twelfth West Virginia regiment, and took part in the battles of New Market, Piedmont, Winchester, Berryville, etc., and going through the Hunter raid, the hardships of which caused injury of sight, which has gradually increased until he is now totally blind. He was a brave and gallant soldier and he is rewarded by a pension.

In addition to his own service, three of his sons served in the army, John, Thomas and Elijah. The first two of these were in the Twelfth West Virginia infantry, the other was a cavalryman. Thomas was wounded in the knee, which has left him a cripple for life.

John Clegg was married November 30, 1837, to Margaret, daughter of John and Margaret (Gibbony) Simpson, natives of Ireland, who came to this country in 1821. She was born March 2, 1812.

To Mr. and Mrs. Clegg were born nine children, two of whom died in infancy; the oldest living, John E., was born July 11, 1840, married Margaret Nice. They have three children: William, Lilly, Lee. The latter died quite young,

Mary J. was born May 17, 1842, is the widow of Samuel Wilson, who died of disease contracted in the army. They had born to them four children. William N., the eldest, is married to Ella Parks and has one child: Charles C.; Ada and John W. The latter died when a babe. Ada died November 1, 1882.

Thomas Clegg was born March 14, 1844. He married Kate Matthews; they have had six children: John E., Maggie M., Benjmin F., Mackeles, George W. and Ruth T. Mackeles died when about two years old.

Elijah was born August 30, 1846; is married to Louisa J. Dean. To them have been born nine children. Those living are: John J., Margaret J., Ada C., Samuel B., Cora May, Thomas, Mattie and Clarence.

Jotham Martin

BIOGRAPHY: Miracle in Minonk - A True Story by Jo Knight

It happened on a bright October day, when my husband, Levern, and I had stopped for lunch at a charming little delicatessen in Minonk, Illinois. All day we had searched land records at Woodford County Courthouse (Eureka, Illinois) for the location of Jotham Martin's farm. Jotham Martin, my maternal great-grandfather, whom I had never known, had lived near Minonk after his arrival from Virginia (West Virginia) in 1861 until his departure to Blue Hill, Nebraska in 1884.

Indeed, we found the warranty deed where Jotham Martin had purchased land on January 21, 1871, near Minonk. By following the deed's land description, we found the old farmhouse where Jotham Martin and his family had lived.

A long circle driveway led to the kitchen door. Here a small ornate plaque greeted us with these words, "Peace to all who enter here." Something about that peaceful greeting seemed to touch a sentimental tone. The plaque itself was placed there, of course, long years after Jotham Martin had gone. Still, I felt that perhaps he had often opened that same door to friends and loved ones, even strangers, with a friendly greeting.

Eagerly, I knocked on the door; and waited. No one came. The kitchen curtain, slightly drawn, gave a flicker of hope that someone might peek out and open the door. Again I knocked. All was silent.

At the back step stood the old water pump. I tried to visualize Jotham Martin and his family quenching their thirst from this very well more than a hundred years ago. Jotham and his wife, Rebecca (Clegg) Martin were parents of ten living children: Presley, Euclid, Mary, John Milton, Oliver, Joshua, Anna, Esther, George, and Jotham Kinzie. Three children: Elizabeth, Franklin and Elizabeth Jane had died in Virginia before Jotham's migration to Illinois.

Jotham MARTIN and Rebecca CLEGG had the following children:

Fourth Generation

25. Rachel L. CLEGG (Thomas-3, Samuel-2, Thomas-1) was born on 24 Oct 1824 in Monroe Co., OH. BIRTH-CONFLICT: A birth date of 1806 in Ohio has been listed. Blaine Clegg listed, 1824, which seems more likely in light of the fact that her husband was born Abt. 1826 and the fact that she is listed as 56 years of age in the 1880 census of Adams Twp., Monroe Co., OH.

She died on 15 Apr 1920 at the age of 95 in Monroe Co., OH. She was buried on 16 Apr 1920 in Cameron, Monroe Co., OH, Old Cemetery.
Rachel L. Clegg

OBITUARY: Mrs. Rachel Henthorn (nee Clegg) of Cameron, Ohio was born October 23, 1824 and died April 15, 1820, being at the time of her death 95 years, 5 months, and 22 days old.

On November 5th, 1843 she was united in marriage with Jesse B. Henthorn, who preceded her to the Great Beyond February 5, 1908.

To this union were born 7 children, 3 of whom, Clifford and Thomas of the home and Mrs. George Pryor of Bellaire, Ohio, preceded her to the grave several years ago. She leaves to mourn her departure, two sons, David of Cleveland, Ohio and John of Cambridge, Idaho, and two daughters, Mrs. Cecilia Jones and Mrs. Sarah Keller, both of Cameron, Ohio, also twenty-four grandchildren and twenty-eight great grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends.

She obeyed the gospel at the age of twenty-one, thereby becoming a member of the Church of Christ, of which she was ever a constant and devout worker, ever-faithful to Him that doeth all things well.

She was always found at her post of duty as long as health would permit, her mind being active and alert until her last illness.

She was ever ready to minister to the sick and distressed, and her presence will be sadly missed in the little village in which she lived, where she was addressed by almost everyone with the enduring term of "Grandma" Henthorn.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. D. Wayne Harkins of Woodsfield, [OH] on Friday, April 16, and interment was made in the Old Cemetery by the side of her husband, there to await the resurrection morn when they that are in their graves shall hear the voice of the Son of god and come forth. (Earl S. Ward)

Problem: Was the date of birth, 24 Oct 1824 or 29 Oct 1829? If she died on 15 Apr 1920 at the age of 95 years, 5 months, 22 days her calculated birth date is 24 Oct 1824.

Rachel L. CLEGG and Jesse B. HENTHORN were married on 5 Nov 1843. MARRIAGE: Date of 5 Nov 1843 from Blaine Clegg.

They appeared in the census in 1880 in Adams Twp., Monroe Co., OH. Jesse B. HENTHORN, son of David HENTHORN and Martha Jane WRIGHT, was born in Aug 1828 in Monroe Co., OH. He died on 5 Feb 1908 at the age of 79 in Monroe Co., OH. He was buried in Feb 1908 in Cameron, Monroe Co., OH, Old Cemetery.

John Clegg, Jr.

BIOGRAPHY: John Clegg, Junior, a merchant of Green Township, Round Bottom. He was born in Seneca Township, Monroe County, Ohio, January 9, 1844. His parents were Samuel Clegg and Catherine Griener, who came to this county in the year 1831.

Mr. Clegg was married in Green Township, April 11, 1867, to Margaret Sawyers, a daughter of Andrew Sawyers and Elizabeth Fulton, now deceased. Mrs. Clegg was born in Green Township October 21, 1850.

Their children are:

- Clement L., born February 2, 1868;
- Charles F., July 29, 1870;
- Emma O., August 11, 1872;
- Laura B., December 3, 1875.

Mr. Clegg has held the office of trustee for two years in this township.

He was a member of the 116th Ohio Volunteer Infantry in the late war. He enlisted at Cameron, Ohio, August 25, 1862, was mustered into the service at Gallipolis, Ohio, September 18, 1862. He was a member of Company E, which was organized at Clarrington, Ohio, by Captain John Varley. He encamped five days at Marietta, Ohio, and then went to Parkersburg, West Virginia, where they remained until December 19, 1862. They went from there by rail to Clarksburg, thence to Buchanan, thence to Beverly, and from there to Webster, and then to Martinsburg, where they joined the army of the Shenandoah valley; fought under General Milroy at Winchester, and General Siegel at the battle of Rood's Hill. They were then transferred to the command of General Hunter, and fought their first battle under him at Piedmont, Virginia. They went from there to Staunton, Virginia, and from there they went on the Lynchburg raid, which is famous in the annals of the rebellion. At Lynchburg many lives were lost, and on the retreat a vast amount of government property was sacrificed. Many of their men starved on that trip, as they had no rations, and the country was so devastated that they could not forage for any. Mr. Clegg, the subject of this sketch, lost fifty pounds in weight while on said retreat. The regiment was reorganized near Charleston, Virginia, and then fell back to Point Pleasant on the Ohio river. From there they returned to Parkersburg, West Virginia, and went by rail from there to Martinsburg, and were then put under the command of General Philip Sheridan. They then fought the battles of Berrysville, September 3, 1864, Winchester, September 19, 1864, Fisher's Hill, September 22, 1864. This was one of the hard fought battles, and one that crippled the Confederacy badly. Mr. Clegg was honorably discharged May 29, 1865.

Mr. Clegg's address is Round Bottom, Monroe County, Ohio.

Isabella "Isabel" CLEGG and Samuel H. HAUDENSCHILD were married on 16 Feb 1884. Samuel H. HAUDENSCHILD was born in 1862. He died of diabetes on 17 Jun 1918 at the age of 56 in Magnetic Springs, , OH. He was buried on 20 Jun 1918 in Antioch, Monroe Co., OH, Antioch Cemetery. Samuel lived in Antioch, Monroe Co., OH. Samuel H. Haudenschild

OBITUARY: Although knowledge that S.H. (Samuel H.) Haudenschild of Antioch, [OH] was in very poor health was generally known by his many friends in Woodsfield and throughout Monroe County, the news of his death, which occurred Thursday morning [17 Jan 1918] at Magnetic Springs, Ohio, came as a great shock because of his universal popularity with all classes of people. Kin, obliging, courteous to all and ever ready to lend a helping hand to the unfortunate and distressed, upright and honorable in his dealings, he numbered as his friends all those who knew him and his death leaves a sense of personal loss to all.

Some months ago he was stricken with his fatal illness diabetes and grew gradually worse, although at times he rallied, giving hope to his friends to complete recovery.

About three weeks ago he went to Magnetic Springs, Ohio, where it was hoped the treatment would be beneficial, but which proved unavailing. On Wednesday morning County Treasurer, M.C. Dougherty, received a telegram to be forwarded to the family saying that the end was probably near. His son, Erret, came to Woodsfield Wednesday evening and left Thursday morning for his bedside but the father passed away before his arrival.

The remains were brought to Woodsfield Friday evening and taken to the home from which on Sunday afternoon they were taken to the M.E. Church, of which he was a member, where funeral services were conducted by Rev. Knipping, pastor of the Woodsfield Evangelical church. The crowd in attendance, the largest ever seen in the village, was an evidence of the esteem in which the deceased was held, friends being drawn from all directions and great distances to pay their final tribute. Interment in the village cemetery (Antioch, Ohio). Deceased was about 57 years of age.

Of the immediate family he leaves to mourn his death the widow and six children, one son, C.E. and five daughters, Mrs. J.R. Hill and Mrs. Edward Yester of Bremen, Ohio; Mrs. Will Yester of Trail Run and Mrs. Ross Hamilton and Miss Hazel of the home. (June 20, 1918)

(My note - Mr. Haudenschild and his son had the Haudenschild Funeral Home in Antioch, Ohio until the death of the son in 1954, Ruth Dougherty Hogue)
